ST. JOSEPH'S ACADEMY

PERALTA PARK, BERKELEY

THIS INSTITUTION is situated west of Berkeley, near the foothills, and in full view of the Golden Gate. The location is an ideal one for an establishment of its kind, and easily accessible from Oakland, Alameda, San Francisco and all neighboring towns and cities. The climate is mild and the scenery of land and water unsurpassed among the suburban sites of the beautiful city of Berkeley. The object of the Academy is to provide boys under fourteen with the safeguards of a good, cheerful and comfortable Christian home during the early part of their school life. It is conducted by the Christian Brothers, well known for their success as an order of religious teachers.

ST. JOSEPH'S ACADEMY

A SKETCH

ST. JOSEPH'S ACADEMY was founded in 1870 in the City of Oakland as a day school for boys. In 1880 it became a boarding school, and its steady growth made it necessary in the early part of the nineties to look for larger and more commodious quarters. Peralta Park Hotel was accordingly purchased and fitted up for the home of the Academy. In 1903 it was opened for the reception of boys, and has since won the unqualified endorsement of its patrons, who now come from all parts of California and other States, as well as from Mexico and Central America.

The buildings are commodious, including the main edifice and several outbuildings, among which is a fine gymnasium fitted up with modern appliances and stage scenery.

The grounds are spacious, containing about 15 acres well wooded and adapted to the requirements of the school. An excellent base-ball field is in close proximity and affords plenty of amusement and healthful outdoor exercise at nearly all seasons of the year. There are besides ball courts, lawn tennis grounds, etc.

The school year opens in September and closes in the last decade of June. Pupils are received at any time during the term, and classified according to their age and capacity. No boy is received for less than one term of five months.
